Well, do not delay taking out that Life Insurance policy until you lose your health, but call on G. B. LUKENS and get the best contract written by any company in the United States.

Lonnie Ralph, Magan; J. N. Oldham, Horton; A. A. Iglehart, Rockport; Wm. L. Bolds, Buford; Len Gentry, Prentiss; J. S. Chinn, Beda; L. E. Schariett, Heflin; Henry Medcalf, Magan; called to see us Monday.

We have a lot of boys' boots we will sell at the following cash prices for the next 15 days: Two pairs 13's worth $1.75 for $1.25. Lushy's best—sides 11's to 13's—3 pair 12's, 7 pair 13's worth $1.50 for $1.10. SCHAPMIRE.

Mr. Rowan Holbrook, Secretary and Treasurer of the Field Coal Company, spent Sunday and Monday with his family here. He reports business good, and a large number of extra men put to work.

Mr. Birch Shields, one of Ohio county's best teachers, will teach a select school for a term of five months at Selet, Ky., beginning February 2nd, 1896. He will, we are informed, have a number of teachers in attendance.

Mrs. J. S. Chinn, who was thrown from her buggy on the street here on 28th day of last April, is now able to go around on crutches. For six months after the accident she was not able to turn herself in bed without assistance.

Rev. J. C. Brandon has a curiosity in the way of an ancient coin. It is a quarter section of a half dollar bearing date 1787, evidently representing a "bit"—124 cents. This was found near Wayne Paxton's in the public road leading from Beaver Dam to Cromwell.

Marriage license since our last report: E. A. Harrison and Edna Fennell; Ellis Beach and Minnie Morgan; J. A. Pitts and Annie Malin; James Gilmore and Mittie Ralph; James Lyons and Lula D. Carson; Darius Gentry and Lillie R. Taylor; John Nevitt and Lillian Ward.

Words fail to express our gratitude towards all who so kindly assisted us during this trying ordeal. J. B. CHENK.

R. C. Jarnagin left with us a fine specimen of limestone that he got off the farm Abraham Lincoln was born and raised on. He also has a petrified acorn and a chip off of one of the logs of the cabin ex-President Lincoln was born in. He got these articles while visiting relatives in the vicinity of this property some two weeks since.

Mrs. Della Smith died at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Scholastic Lowe, of near town, Saturday night and was buried at Bell's Run church cemetery Sunday. She was the mother of Hon. T. J. Smith, of Hartford, and was a most highly respected christian lady.

Rev. Edward Drury, Catholic Missionary, accompanied by Rev. M. O'Connor, Rector of St. Joseph's church, Leitchfield, Ky. and Rev. John McSherry, 140 Broadway, Louisville, Ky., arrived in Hartford Monday, Jan. 20th. Parochial duty called away the two latter clergymen, but the Rev. Father Drury will continue to give a series of lectures on Catholic doctrine at the court house, closing Thursday night.

Mr. C. L. Field, our liveryman, went to Campbellville, Taylor county, Monday, to identify a horse and buggy. Several weeks ago a young man named Hudson, traveling for the E. E. Sather, land drug company, of Paducah, passed through here and after making a contract with THE HERALD for advertising, purchased a horse and buggy from Mr. Field with which to continue his journey. Mr. Field was shrewd enough to require the above named drug company to stand good for the purchase, which they did, and he heard no more of it until a few days ago he was requested by the drug company to go to Campbellville, where Hudson had sold the horse and buggy to a livery firm and then skipped out. The Sutherland Co. seem much chagrined at the action of Hudson, who was a trusted salesman and had been in their employ for several years.

Will Try an Easier Task. (Madisonville, Mo.)

Jo B. Rodgers, who has for several years been the editor of the Hartford (Ohio county) Republican, has had a change of heart and has gone into the ministry. He has laid down the pen, stepped from the editorial tripod, washed the ink from his fingers and in their stead has taken up the Bible, gone into the pulpit and will henceforth preach to a dying world. He no doubt got tired trying to convert Democrats to the Republican doctrine and will tackle the sinners of the Commonwealth and try to persuade them to be saved before it is over.

Several changes have taken place in our community lately. Mr. Bob Ralph has moved near Bell's Run and Mr. Zack Wells has rented Mr. Charlie Field's place and moved to same. Mr. D. C. Atherton has gone back to Daviess county. He worked Mrs. Hettie Field's farm the last year. Mr. Ben Higgs has moved to McLean county, near Glenview, he having sold his interest in his farm to Mr. Bell. Mr. Crittendon has about completed his fine residence.

Preparations are being made to plant a large crop of tobacco this year. All seem inclined to the barley variety. Mr. J. Y. Howard has begun a fine residence on his farm. Mrs. Fannie Bell and family, formerly of Hartford House, have moved to Owensboro.

The school at this place which has been taught by Miss Mollie Ferguson will close next Thursday. Miss Mollie will leave Friday for his home in South Carrollton. We regret very much to see our Democratic friends split in electing a U. S. Senator for Kentucky, which seems to insure a Republican House. Anything would be better than that. Have all the good Democrats gone crazy? If so, what next? Will it take a Russo-German Franco-American war to bring them right? It will take a pure Democracy to handle old England. We see that Mr. Barnett has said that he would not vote to unseat any Democrat that was honestly elected. Mr. Barnett need hardly have said this. Sax.

A Monster Whale at Rockport. From the sea coast on an Erie Canal boat, in itself a curiosity, there arrived in Rockport on Tuesday, a monster whale that when captured weighed 75 tons and is 65 feet in length with a mouth so large that 25 people can stand erect in it at one time. The tongue weighed 8,000 pounds alone. All along the lower Green river it has been seen by thousands of our best people, who all declare it genuine and the sight of a lifetime. No one should miss seeing it, as the price is within the means of all. Adults 10c, children 5c.

FARMERS! We can give you the highest market price for Pork and sell you all supplies for next 40 days at greatly reduced prices. HOCKER & CO.

For Sale—Livery Stable. I want to sell my livery business at McHenry, Ky., the stock consisting of 7 head of horses, 4 buggies, 2 spring wagons, 1 surrey, 1 road wagon, harness and fixtures of all kinds. In trying everything to run a first-class livery stable. Will sell for cash or part cash and balance good security. JOHN CAMPBELL.

Died in Daviess County. (Owensboro Inquirer.)

Mr. James M. Haynes, one of Daviess county's old and greatly respected residents, died suddenly of heart failure at his home near Enos, this morning. He was the father of Ira Haynes, of this county, and W. O. Haynes, the well known Union county lawyer.

Mr. Haynes was born in Ohio county in 1821, and was married in 1844 to Miss Mary P. Miller, who was six years his junior. Mr. Haynes moved to this county in 1846, settling on the farm on which he died. Politically, Mr. Haynes was an old, tried and true Democrat. He voted for James K. Polk for President in the exciting campaign of 1844. Henry Clay being the opposing candidate. He was a consistent member of the Baptist church.

BEAVER DAM NOTES. Jan. 21.—The following students from outside the district were enrolled in the Beaver Dam High School on Tuesday last, the opening of the session: L. D. Whitaker, Jas. T. Austin, E. Johnson, Eddie Cooper, May Rogers, Laura Barnes, Charlotte Baker, Flavia Baker, Commodore Hunt. Quite a number of these are teachers who are desirous of prosecuting their studies and taking higher grades in the profession. Several others will enter in a few days.

The school of Mr. J. C. Hoover closed at Goheen on Saturday night with an entertainment which was a decided success. The Beaver Dam band furnished the music and did remarkably well, notwithstanding they were without a leader. Prof. Scott having gone to his home in Indiana on a visit.

The new minister (whose name we have failed to get) for the M. E. Church arrived here yesterday and will make his residence at this place.

Rev. John T. Casheiler filled his regular appointment here on Saturday and Sunday last. Rev. J. N. Jarnagin filled the pulpit on Sunday night.

The young ladies will give an Masonic ball on Saturday night, February 1st, to all on Saturday night, February 1st, for the benefit of the Union Sunday School. The Sunday School has increased in members and extent since the opening of the new year. RURAL.

For Sale. A good saddle and harness horse. Apply to THE HERALD. 114

SELDON, KY. Jan. 20, 1896.—We stay at home so close that we seldom hear anything that happens until we read it in THE HERALD. However, we promised an occasional letter from this section and must comply. We have had several deaths the last week. Mr. Joe Crane buried one of his children at New Richmond, last week. Mr. Bob Nantico also buried one of his children which died very suddenly.

Mrs. Caroline Allen died Jan. 18, 1896, age 80 years. She was a devoted member of the Baptist church for 45 years. She was buried at Mt. Carmel church and Rev. B. F. Jenkins preached her funeral.
